

News

After 42 years of service to the profession and 25 years in the UN, Dr R K Sharma retired from United Nations Information Centre for India & Bhutan (UNIC) New Delhi on 31 January 2021. Before joining UN, he had worked in the National Institute of Public Finance & Policy and Delhi University Library System. More than 100 LIS professionals from NCR Delhi were present on his superannuation get-together and blessed him for a happy, healthy and prosperous post retirement life.

Mr Rajiv Chandran & Prof. K P Singh deserves appreciation for anchoring the programme wonderfully and specially for showing an excellent video presentation on Dr Sharma's life & career prepared by Prof. K P Singh.